OF THE WHOLE NUMBER INSURED DURING THE LAST TWO YEARS, NOT ONE HAS DIED.

The endorsement which the fundamental ideas of this Company are daily receiving from eminent medical men throughout the land, the acceptance of our common sense, simple, and secure mutual insurance, and the commendation of leading journals—both the insurance and secular press—give the best encouragement of triumphant success and general acceptance.

The Official Report (N. Y.) shows that the ratio of the number of policies upon which claims were paid in all companies has advanced from 10 9 per thousand in 1872, to 11.9 in 1873. In the former year the American Popular lost 4 7, and in the latter 3 7 per thousand.

The rate of death claims and of expenses to total income, and to total amount at risk, increasing rather than diminishing in the case of the aggregate companies, being in both years very large, contrast strongly with the low ratio of this Company and its growing prosperity. In the light of these facts, its low premium rates are more than justified in a practical sense, as, in a scientific view, they are both equitable and secure.

Before the era of inflation in life insurance, the old-plan companies are shown by the reports to have done a comparatively small business, and it was doubtless, with the large premiums they required, comparatively safe. Some, commencing later, "pushed business" from the first, with a vehemence that created amazement, and already, in common with the older companies, are beginning to experience the reaction that must have been expected from the abnormal and indiscreet inflation.

The comparatively small (but really large for the kind) number of policies issued by this Company is one of the best evidences of its security—the rigid adherence to well established scientific principles, in the rating of risks, giving low premiums only to superior lives, and thus making the Company attractive to few others. It would surprise those not acquainted with the working of our plan, to know the number of applications received and the amount of labor and care expended in their examination and rating, all of which is just so much to the advantage of superior risks.

It will also be noticed that large business is not a guarantee of safety, for if the mortality is high, indicating a want of care or skill in selection, the larger the business, the more safety is imperiled; and while small business may not show care, large business does show carelessness. We could have shown a very large business from the start if we had been indifferent to the kind. But the kind is the question, and more work is necessary in doing the amount of our kind of business than would do four times as much that would be unprofitable to both the assured and to the Company.

The increase of our business during the past year, is as wholesome and encouraging as our losses are small.

Our ratio of increase has been:

In number of Policies,	105.7.
In amount of Assurance,	116.45

The ratio of all N. Y. Co.'s has been:

In number of Policies,	102.93
In amount of Assurance,	102.30

Pierce's Rheumatic Cure

FOR RHEUMATISM & NEURALGIA.

A Tried and Sure Cure.

This remedy is the result of the research of one of the proprietors who had been a great sufferer for years, and who had tried all the advertised remedies and the skill of many physicians without obtaining relief. A radical cure was obtained, and numerous similar cures effected among his friends and acquaintances, without an exception, have induced him to put it before the public. It was got up without a thought of making it an article of merchandise, but the numerous and increasing demands for it, as its merits have become known, have induced him to advertise it for the benefit of sufferers like himself.

It is an infallible remedy, if persistently used, for these painful maladies of Rheumatism and Neuralgia, as testimonials, too abundant to give in this advertisement, will show. Among these testimonials are those of Mrs. Judge Appleton, E. M. Tolett, J. M. Morrill, foreman of Hinckley and Egery's Foundry; C. H. Egery, and others of Bangor, J. M. ..., of the Franklin House, Mons. ... A. ... R. Orcutt, of Eddington, ... for fourteen years, and at times helpless, having tried the best known remedies and three skillful physicians without effect, after using ... has been restored to health, and gives his gratuitous testimony.

It is an internal remedy, acting on the blood, freeing it from impurities and preparing from ... the system. It may be used by children and those of the most delicate constitution with perfect safety. Full directions with each bottle.

Price per bottle $1 00. Liberal discount to the trade. For sale by Druggists generally.

BAYOLINE QUININE HAIR TONIC.

Something which has long been needed.

Every day we hear of some case of paralysis, softening of the brain or some nervous disease of the head resulting from the use of hair preparations containing lead, sulphur, bismuth, or other mineral substance. That the use of these preparations is always attended with danger is an indisputed fact, they are dyes and should not be used for dressing the hair. What has long been needed is a preparation like Bayoline, which is not a restorer or dye, contains neither lead, sulphur, bismuth, or any mineral substance whatever. It is a pure and harmless hair dressing, keeps the hair from falling out, promotes its growth, eradicates dandruff, cleanses the scalp, is not greasy or sticky, does not soil, and always leaves a sense of cleanliness and comfort attained by no other preparation; for its intended purposes it has never been equalled.

GENERAL M'DOWELL'S REPORT.

[From the Kennebec Journal.]

General McDowell has recently made a report as commander of the department of the South, giving the facts in regard to military operations within the limits of his department. Compared with the information that the correspondent of a newspaper, were he ever so capable, intelligent, enterprising and unprejudiced, might obtain in a time of investigation through the South, that contained in General McDowell's report must be far more trustworthy. His information comes from all quarters where disturbances have been; from eye witnesses in most cases of what they relate, who have had ample time and opportunity to become well acquainted with the condition of affairs existing in the localities for which they speak. We have not room to copy the full report, but our readers can judge from a few prominent cases what the substance of the report is in regard to the Ku-Klux, the White League, and the condition of the South politically, socially and morally.

In regard to the vicinity of the Trenton massacre the commanding officer at Humboldt reports that outrages upon the negroes have greatly increased since the middle of August, the Ku Klux raiding almost every night in Gibson county and the counties adjoining. General McDowell adds:

The recent disturbances in this section of the State all seem to have started about the time the Civil Rights bill was brought before Congress, and the reports of outrages committed on the negroes by these outlaws have been more numerous since, about that time than at any other period in the last three years. Many of these have simply amounted to the more act of driving or frightening the colored men away for the purpose of securing the small crops they have made, which is easily accomplished by threatening them with a visit at night of Ku-Klux. I have learned since the Trenton massacre that just previous to that time, say about 24th of August, every bridge, railroad and river crossing, and all roads and important points, were strictly guarded by the whites, and up to the time of the massacre and for some days afterwards the whole country was scoured by armed men for the purpose of capturing those who were supposed to have made their escape. Of the men who were taken from the jail at Trenton on the morning of the 26th of August, three have reached the garrison in safety and are now in Memphis under the protection of the United States Marshal, and three more are known to be alive and at large. Since the recent troubles here the number of outrages reported to me by parties, who have been beaten, have been comparatively few, from the fact that the Ku-Klux organizations now seem to be so perfect that the parties outraged are in most instances prevented from coming here to give information themselves, and the fact of the outrages having been committed is only learned by general report through the country and from some of the friends of the parties, who pass the news from one to another. A very bitter feeling seems to exist among the people throughout this entire section of the country against the government and particularly against the negro, and the few Union men who reside in this vicinity are completely cowed and live in constant fear. Several of them have had threats made against their lives, to my own knowledge, during and since the recent disturbance.

The commanding officer at Livingstone, Alabama, who occupied that place in September, on the application of the United States Attorney General, says:

For the information of the commanding General I would respectfully state the cause of all these gatherings of whites and negroes in arms in this and the adjoining counties. The white people have an organization throughout the country known as the White League. They have determined the negroes shall not vote at the coming elections unless they vote as they do. To effect this, they do everything in their power to intimidate the blacks. The two most active Republicans in this county, Billings (white) and Ivey (colored,) have been assassinated in the county since the 1st of August. These murders have had a very great effect on the colored people, particularly as they see no arrests have been made, nor have steps been taken to find out the offenders. To keep up the fear among the blacks, the whites now get together almost every day and night and ride the roads in squads of from thirty to fifty men, armed with shot guns, pretending that the negroes are arming and gathering to attack the whites, which is not the case. There have been no bodies of negroes of any strength together. This place is the head-quarters from which the whites start, and I would respectfully ask that I be permitted to keep my men well in hand at this place, where I can always know what is going on and be ready to move men to the neighborhood of any threatening disturbance. Since I arrived here on the fifth inst., there have been gatherings at three different points in this county. No collision has occurred, nor will there as long as the white people can intimidate the blacks by a display of armed force. A night attack on this camp is freely talked of here and in the country around, but I do not fear anything of the kind. On Sunday night about midnight, about thirty men, well armed, rode into the town, remained about fifteen minutes near the camp, and then rode off. I keep a good guard against anything of this kind.

Respecting Louisiana General McDowell simply states the disposition made of the troops in that State, and then quotes from the statement he made last January before the Military Committee of the House in regard to troops in the South. At that time he gave it as his opinion that troops were needed in that section to keep the peace, and that the numbers should not be decreased. His remarks then foreshadowed the disturbances which have prevailed this fall, owing to the Ku-Klux and White Leaguers. "I think it is safe," said he, "to say that the troops in Louisiana have been of immense public good. It is so recognized, I believe, by all parties. They have been the preservers of peace, and I think that their whole course has been of the most conservative character."

As a whole General McDowell's report substantiates the utterances of the republican press in regard to affairs in the South. Without the troops and the restraining effect of the authority of the United States there would be scenes of terrible violence, to end only in the complete subjugation of the blacks, and their return to a condition of servitude and the expulsion from the southern States of every white republican who dared declare his political sentiments. Yet while the democratic party upholds the nefarious course of the Ku Klux and White League and the support of the national republican party and the administration is the only reliance of the colored people and the perpetuation of toleration and freedom in the South, there are those who say there is no difference between the republican and democratic parties, and that the mission of the former is ended. An attempt on their part to make a residence in the South and vote a republican ticket would soon convince them of their error.

Rev. W. G. Goucher of the Baptist church of Waldoboro has resigned his charge, and accepted a call from the First Baptist church of Coaticook, Canada. Rev. R. D. Hill of the First Baptist church of Reading, Mass., formerly of Thomaston, succeeds Mr. Goucher.

U. S. detectives were on the war-path in Rockland, Tuesday, discovering who were selling ale and liquors without paying the U. S. internal revenue license. Several were caught, and it cost them a pretty sum to settle the affair and procure their licenses.

One day last week a sister of Judge Kimball of Liberty fell head-foremost through a trap door opening into the cellar of her brother's house. Though more than eighty years of age she received no injury, and was able to walk up stairs without assistance.

Mr. Jacob E. Cunningham of Swanville died suddenly while walking in a field near his house, Friday morning aged about seventy-two years. Mr Cunningham had held all the municipal offices in the gift of his townsmen and several times represented them in the State Legislature.

On Friday last Mr. George Thompson of Damariscotta, who is about 77 years of age, left his house about 9 o'clock in the morning to go into the woods, about a third of a mile distant chopping. He cut off a small tree, which, in falling, lodged, and in attempting to dislodge it, the tree fell upon him, knocking him down, and breaking and dislocating his left hip, and pinning him to the ground. He was not found till night, when he was greatly exhausted.

At Seven Mile brook, Vassalboro, where workmen have been digging for the foundation of the new railroad or depot that point, the remains of Indians were exhumed. The party seemed to strike an ancient Indian burial ground. The size of the bones indicated that they once belonged to the "noble red man." Jaws were found containing teeth in a perfect state of preservation. Tradition tells us that in this place, nearly one hundred and fifty years ago, a battle took place between two hostile tribes of Indians, and that here the slain were buried, which accounts for the presence of the bones. Indian implements of war have also been found near the same place.

REACTIONARY STRAWS.

[From the Boston Journal.]

Those men who have joined with the Democrats in the recent elections are naturally very ready to give bail for their appearance at some advanced stage of progress in the future. The idea that there is any danger of their taking a reactionary course, and seeking if they get the power, to undo the reconstructive legislation of the last dozen years, is earnestly repudiated by all who feel any degree of responsibility for the Democratic position at present. Nevertheless, even in the midst of the breezes of the Democratic jubilation, there are many straws which are pointing in the right direction. The leading newspaper organ of the Democratic party takes pains at the present time to quote from a letter written by George Ticknor Curtis, as follows "There is a large mass of legislation now on the statute-book, chiefly put there for party purposes, which is either palpably and plainly unconstitutional, or at least of very doubtful constitutional validity." Mr. Curtis says that this mass, which he further characterizes as "the legislation of the past twelve years, "ought not to be left for the court to work off gradually by their decisions, but that it should be overhauled and repealed the moment the Democrats get control in Congress. The World is of the same opinion.

The peculiar language of Senator Gordon of Georgia in his jubilee remarks everywhere disseminated by telegraph, as a sign of the new era of good feelings, will also have been noticed. He asks his auditors to commission him to pledge upon the floor of the Senate "your acquiescence in laws passed in accordance with the Constitution, good and bad, until lawfully repealed. The allusion, of course, is to the reconstruction laws, and the prospect of their repeal is held out as an inducement to patience and acquiescence in the meantime. A Kentucky organ, the Logan County Sentinel, outlines the programme with great distinctness, as will be seen by the following: "We will have a National Convention of all the States to revise and amend the Constitution of the United States, and there will be no niggers in that convention. The Constitution as revised will be the Constitution as it was in 1860, except in the matter of slavery." This plan, says the editor, would leave the "niggers" "on the footing of unnaturalized foreigners," and he praises its effective simplicity. A paper better known, though not surer to express the sentiment of the rank and file of its party, the Atlanta (Ga.) News scintillated its joy over the election returns in the following head line in glaring capitals: "D—n the Reconstruction and Civil Rights Bill!"

Other similar straws might be given, but these will suffice. They show that the old element of the Democracy with which the Republican party has had to contend ever since the days of Abraham Lincoln is still in existence, is still active, and is particularly jubilant over the results of the recent elections. It is not in human nature to suppose that, having survived defeat on the battlefield and political overthrow and obscurity for nine or ten years, it will not struggle toward the front the moment the barriers are thought to be removed. The question is whether it can be held in check by the more patriotic and judicious sections of the Democracy. We make no question that a large proportion of the Democrats who have been instrumental in winning the recent triumphs are determined to give no encouragement to disloyalty or to any hostility to the national settlement at the South; but they will have more to contend against than they are aware of. The strength of a party comes from below rather than above—it is in its masses rather than its leaders. Hence it will be well for months to come to notice these slight but significant indications of the ground currents of Democracy.

PLEASANT PEOPLE.

[From the Providence Journal.]

The telegraphic correspondents in New Orleans, where, as elsewhere in the south, they are all in the interest of the rebels, or they would not be permitted to stay there, are uncommonly prompt in contradicting every report of outrage upon the rights of the colored men, and equally persistent in promulgating the great desire of the White Leaguers to live in peace and charity with all mankind. These new apostles of law and order say, in effect, that if the Republicans, white or black, will remain in what Petroleum V. Nasby calls their "normal spear," abstain from voting unless the Democratic ticket, and not interfere in any way with the policy and the wishes of the League, they will not be disturbed. If Gov. Kellogg and the returning board do not return the election as the White League resolved, in the beginning, that it should be carried, they are to be killed, or in the felicitous language of one of these correspondents, they will "adorn the lamp posts of New Orleans." But with a few exceptions of this kind, there is an evident disposition on the part of Democrats to remain quiet and orderly, as long as they have their own way in everything. What more could be reasonably asked?

THE PULLMAN TRAINS. The Augusta papers do not seem to have a very lucid idea of the workings of the proposed change in the time table of the Pullman trains. Both the Journal and the Farmer speak of the change as enabling persons to go from Augusta to St. John in one day, and the latter thinks that no one here will materially suffer "except, perhaps, the hotel proprietors." Our Augusta friends must rely on their remarkable powers of pedestrianism to carry them through to St. John in one day, as the Maine Central train by the new arrangement will arrive here some three hours after the departure of the morning train for St. John on the E. & N. A. line. They will therefore be obliged to walk through or remain in this city from 11 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 A. M. of the next day to take train. In fact the break of connection will benefit the hotel proprietors more than any one else, if the obstruction does not have the effect of seriously checking the through travel.

General Dix's story about the influence of eels on politics has a very good parallel in a story now current in the French papers. A journalist in search of information inquired of a man working in a vineyard which of the candidates was likely to be elected in that district. "Well," said the laborer, "no one can tell. All that depends on the vintage. If the vintage is good the conservative will be elected. But if people are dissatisfied with the harvest, the radical, who is against the government, will be chosen."

EDITORIAL CABBAGE. The Houlton Pioneer expresses its gratitude for small favors in the following announcement that puffs and cabbages are convertible mediums in its office:

The easiest way to get your name in the Pioneer is to drop into the editor's porringer something nice in the form of garden vegetables. Thus no doubt thought Dr. B. who dropped in last Thursday with a 10 lb. cabbage. There are worse things than cabbage, and we are a long way from being offended by such tokens of regard.

DEPRESSION OF THE SHIPPING BUSINESS. It is stated that the principal European steam lines to New York have resolved to haul off some of their steamers until the return of better times. The carrying trade on the ocean appears now to be at low water mark and no decided improvement is anticipated for some months to come. The carrying trade was remarkably active last year, but the abundant grain crops of Europe this season and other causes have produced great depression in the ocean freighting business.

The candid Democratic organ in this city charges the President with having changed front on the currency question, quoting the N. Y. Republic's opinions as authority, two days after the publication of an authoritative denial of any change in the President's position, and after that paper had editorially relieved the President from any knowledge of or responsibility for its utterances. The President stands by the doctrines of his veto message. The following statement by authority of the President was at once furnished to the Associated Press and has already appeared in our telegraphic columns:

The statement that the President's views on the financial questions have undergone modification since last spring is denied, on the highest authority. Not only has the President not changed his opinion, but he has freely and repeatedly expressed to all persons who have seen proper to approach him on this subject the same views contained in his veto message. It is equally certain that the Secretary of the Treasury has not expressed any views antagonistic to the President, and his friends confidently assert that his forthcoming report will urge upon Congress strongly a return to specie payment at the earliest practicable period. It is also certain that the editorial in a New York morning paper yesterday was not inspired by the President or the Secretary of the Treasury, nor by any one acting under authority from either of them, and the article is as much a surprise to them as to anybody else.

THE GOVERNMENT QUARRIES. We observe that some of the Democratic papers are asserting that the granite quarries in this county have been conducted as political powers in the interest of the Republican party. The fact is, instead of this charge being true, that the large Democratic vote on those works helps largely to keep Knox a Democratic county. But we trust the policy of employing so large a proportion of foreigners on them—voters and non-voters—will be changed; we hope so, not only in the interest of the Republican party, but in justice to native citizens and in the interest of economy. A careful comparison will prove beyond question that the stone cutters of Maine average better in the quality and quantity of work performed than foreigners, and we hope in future they will have at least equal chances upon the quarries, however the Democrats may howl about it. We do not decry all foreign workmen, there are many of them skilled, industrious and deserving. Let them have their deserts, say we; but no more. This cry of the quarries being conducted in the interest of the Republicans is not half as true as it ought to be, considering that the development of this source of labor and wealth is almost wholly due to Republican administrations.—Rockland Free Press.

AN ARGUMENT OF FACTS. A correspondent of the Boston Post having written a letter representing that Maine is no better than other States, notwithstanding her stringent legislation and the claims of her people to a superiority in temperance, the Boston Daily News makes a sharp reply, based on figures which cannot be refuted. It says:

A million and a half. Fifteen hundred thousand spent for liquor annually in Maine in spite of prohibition! The Boston Post and a Maine correspondent of the Post howl over this vast expenditure. A million and a half—just think of it—in the very home of the Maine Law. The Post is right. Its correspondent is right. They ought to howl. Maine ought to be ashamed of herself. But how is it with her sister States? What do they spend? The Internal Revenue Department estimates the amount spent annually for liquors in all the States at six hundred millions. Forty millions of people spend $600,000,000. Maine has a population of about 600,000. If Maine drinks its shard of liquor, it ought to pay nine millions a year. If it only pays a million and a half it pays only one-six part as much as its sister States. If the Post and its correspondent howl over Maine, what ought they to do over her sister States? If they strain at a camel how do they expect to swallow an elephant?

OH YE OF LITTLE FAITH. We notice that some of our Republican contemporaries are proposing to dispose of their stock of those plucky birds which are so useful as emblems of victory—their roosters. This is all wrong. They are sure to want these cheerful birds within a few months again. Our courage was never better. We regard the late defeats as the best possible occurrences to awaken indifferent Republicans to the danger of apathy, and excite their active resistance to further Democratic successes.—Rockland Free Press.

THE REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY. The Secretary of the Navy, in his annual report will ask for about nineteen and a half million dollars, being the same amount that was asked for last year, but which was cut down to about sixteen million dollars. The bureau of construction and repairs is to have three and one-half millions for repairs to naval vessels. The chief of the bureau thinks this amount will keep a good sized working force constantly employed in the different yards. No new naval vessels will be asked for by the Secretary, to be provided for in these estimates. It is not improbable, however, that an additional sloop of war will be provided for later in the session. In the miscellaneous appropriation bill $6,000,000 will be applied to the personnel of the navy; about $2,000,000 to the engineer bureau, the balance of the $10,500,000 being equally divided among the the bureau of medicine, surgery, provisions, clothing and equipments. The Secretary will make a report on the Stevens battery, now building at Hoboken, N. J., and will recommend to Congress to accept the contingent bid of Mr. Hanscomb, chief of the bureau of construction and repairs, which was $145,000, the Government to take charge of it for this sum and complete it. This great iron-plated ship has cost the Government already $1,000,000, after which the Government abandoned its intention of purchasing it. Stevens, in his will, left another million, which has been spent on it, making the total cost of the work upon it thus far, $2,000,000. It appears to be the desire of the Secretary not to let the ship go out of the country; hence the bid of $145,000 which Congress is asked to accept in order to secure it. An agent of the Japanese Government was at the sale, with a view to purchasing it, but declined to bid on learning that our Government was a bidder. The Committee on Appropriations has not yet had the estimates placed in its hands, but some of the members have had several consultations with Secretary Robeson. Mr. Hale of Maine, of the committee, who arrived in Washington Thursday, will have charge of the appropriation bill.

In his speech at the Manhattan Club, after the election, Mr. Tilden said many things in which all good citizens will agree, but he also cast a gloom over the festivities by saying that he and his friend Mr. Horatio Seymour deeply lamented that there is scarcely "a man under forty or fifty years of age who has had an opportunity to learn the true principles of American free government." Is it, then, those ripe Democratic leaders of an earlier day, Jefferson Davis, James M. Mason, James Buchanan, John B. Floyd, Jacob Thompson, Howell Cobb, and the rest, who monopolize with Mr. Tilden and Mr. Seymour all knowledge of the true principles of the American Government? Had the party of which Mr. Tilden has been always an uncompromising supporter, even when Tweed was its New York master, remained in control of the National Government, it would have still prated of Jeffersonian principles and American freedom, while it would have "constitutionally" spread human slavery all over the free Territories; have authorized the Carolina slave lord to hold his slaves in New York; have made the American flag a flag of shame, and the American name a stench in the name of Justice and Humanity.—Harper's Weekly.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The New Hampshire Democrats will hold a convention, for the nomination of a candidate for Governor, in Concord, on the 8th of January next.

The N. Y. Times's Louisville despatch says that J. D. White, Rep., for Congress in the Ninth District is elected by 500 majority over Cockerill, Democrat.

The returns from the remote counties of Wisconsin, heretofore partly estimated, make it certain that McDill, Rep., is elected in the Eighth District, which leaves the Congressional delegation standing six Republican and two Democrats.

AN ENTERPRISING BOY. The Kennebec Journal says that a boy in Gardiner recently established an enviable reputation at home for good deportment at school, by a fair share of "rewards of merit" which he brought to his parents. He really purchased them from scholars who had them to spare, and investigation by the old folks revealed the fraud. The boy now takes his lickings at school, as usual, with an occasional basting at home.

DR. BABCOCK pays especial attention to the following operations: The filling of the natural teeth with Gold or other materials, The Treatment and saving of aching teeth. The administration of anæsthetics—Laughing Gas, Ether or Chloroform. Treatment of Mouth diseases, and the Surgery of the mouth. He would also say to all those who are suffering under that misfortune, a Cleft Palate, congenital or otherwise, that he makes their complete or partial cure a specialty. He has but just completed an operation of the kind for a gentleman who had not spoken a distinct word for more than ten years, his palate having been destroyed from the effects of a wound received in the Army. His speech is completely restored by means of an artificial palate, and no person would now imagine that it had ever been otherwise than perfect. Dr. B. will cheerfully examine and give his opinion in all such cases gratuitously. All charges as moderate as the character and perfection of any operation will possibly permit.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC, SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption. Frequently medicines that stop a cough will occasion the death of the patient, they lock up the liver, stop the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and in fact, they clog the action of the very organs that caused the cough. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of Consumption. Many persons complain of a dull pain in the side, constipation, coated tongue, pain in the shoulder-blade, feelings of drowsiness and restlessness, the food lying heavily on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and belching up of wind. These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver. Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly checked, will find the stomach and liver clogged, remaining torpid and inactive, and almost before they are aware the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, the result of which is death. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain opium or anything calculated to check a cough suddenly. Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gastric juice of the stomach, aids digestion and creates a ravenous appetite. When the bowels are costive, skin sallow, or the symptoms otherwise of a bilious tendency, Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required. These medicines are prepared only by J. H. SCHENCK & SON, N. E. corner Sixth and Arch streets, Phila. And are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Dr. Schenck will be at the QUINCY HOUSE, Boston, on the following WEDNESDAYS, October 7th and 21st, November 4th and 18th, and December 2d, 16th and 30th. nov12 eu eod8 eodly

THE COAL MINERS' STRIKE

ST LOUIS Nov 13. About fifteen hundred striking coal miners held a meeting near French Village, St. Clair county, yesterday, and, after reports from various lodges and speeches from their leaders, adopted a series of resolutions, and appointed a committee of five to confer with a similar committee of the operatives regarding the prices for digging. If these committees do not agree, disinterested citizens are to be appointed to arbitrate matters. Their decision is to be final. The meeting was quiet and orderly. No disposition was manifested to create trouble or disobey the law.

The incendiaries were not discovered.

COPENHAGEN, Nov 13 There is some excitement in consequence of the introduction in the Folkething by Radical members of a motion for a vote of censure of the Cabinet. The President of the Council of Ministers first declared that the adoption of the motion would be followed by the immediate dissolution of the Cabinet, but afterwards it was unexpectedly determined that the Ministry should not dissolve at any event. LONDON, Nov 13 There is a report here that the documents demanded by the German government of Count von Arnim were sent from this country to Berlin Wednesday, and the Count his then and will deliver them to Emperor William.

THE COUNT A PRISONER IN HIS OWN HOUSE.

BERLIN, Nov 12 Count von Arnim is confined in his own house and not in a cell at the police station as was reported last night. A police commissioner and several constables appeared at the Count's house yesterday with a warrant for his arrest and conveyance to prison, but his physicians were immediately summoned and they certified that the state of the Count's health was such that his removal would be attended with most serious consequences. He was therefore permitted to remain at home.

CAUSE OF THE SECOND ARREST.

The Post says Count von Arnim was arrested the second time because he communicated some important documents to a third party while he was confined in the county hospital. There have been other reasons, however, which are not known. The statement that the Count had not received a copy of his indictment is denied.

THE CASE OF MISS JACKSON The opposition press have found a queer cause of complaint against the President in charging him with preventing the dismissal from a Treasury Department clerkship of a Miss Jackson daughter of the man who shot Col Ellsworth at Alexandria at the beginning of the war. It was alleged that this action of the President was in deference to the wishes of Mosby the former rebel raider. The Washington special of the N Y Times says the story is not even an incorrect and garbled one but is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. The facts are given as follows

Miss Jackson was appointed during Judge Richardson's Secretaryship but it was not known at the time that she was the daughter of the Jackson who killed Ellsworth. She has proved herself an excellent clerk, and has been at least once promoted for efficiency. It was not until a few days ago that Mr McCartee learned the unpleasant fact above noted, and he at once recommended her dismissal. Secretary Bristow, having learned the story, assumed the sole responsibility of retaining the lady in the department. There was no ground whatever for her dismissal except the relationship, for which she can hardly be held responsible. Her record in the department was excellent, and so far as it went warranted her retention. Secretary Bristow says if it had been a question of giving her the appointment in the first instance, he would probably have decided it adversely, deeming it proper that daughters and widows of soldiers in the Union army seeking places should have the preference. To dismiss her now, for no reason but her parentage, he would regard as a punishment which he was not authorized to administer. At any rate he assumes the responsibility, and says, so far as he knows, the President had no knowledge of the case. Col Mosby did not appear in it, and he was influenced alone by his own feelings and judgment. No doubt the raid on Miss Jackson was organized by some one who wanted her place, and it is noticeable that most is made of the affair by those who have been loudest in demanding that the war should be forgotten.

Tom Scott and Vanderbilt went to Baltimore to get the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to become a party to the Saratoga contract but the proposal was declined. The road, however, with others, agreed to abolish all commissions on tickets and drawbacks on freights.

SHAW'S GARDEN Among the prominent "show places" of St Louis is Shaw's Garden. It is one of the finest in the country, and a decided addition to the metropolis of the Mississippi valley. Not to be outdone by any city or town Bangor now has its Shaw's Garden which is designed to be useful as well as ornamental. It is the property of Mr O M Shaw, proprietor of the Bangor House. It is located at the corner of Allen and Fourteenth streets, and contains 25 acres of land. For a few weeks past laborers have been engaged in preparing the soil and in putting in the plants and vines, which are expected to furnish a bountiful supply of fruit next year. This fall's work is now completed, and includes the setting out of 2 400 strawberry plants, 100 each of currant and raspberry vines a number of grape vines, and a large bed each of asparagus and rhubarb. In March next ten hot beds will be in operation for the starting of early lettuce, tomatoes, radishes, cabbages and other vegetables. The garden is laid out upon a liberal scale, and will amply supply the table of the hotel with fresh fruit and garden sass the season through.

THE STATE POULTRY ASSOCIATION. The officers of the Maine Poultry Association held a business meeting at the Falmouth Hotel, in Portland, on Wednesday. A full Board were in attendance, as follows:

Albert Noyes of Bangor, President; Charles H Haskell, of Portland, Vice President; Frederick Fox, of Portland, Secretary; Fred. F Harris of Portland, Treasurer. Directors: Fred Atwood Winterport, E. O. Conant, and R. L. O. Adams, Portland, B. H. Lewis Deering

Arrangements were perfected for the second annual exhibition, which is to be held in Portland, January 12—15, for which not only City Hall, but also the Reception Hall in the same building, have been secured. The new diploma of the Association, which has been engraved at large expense, was accepted. The Rules and Premium List of the Association, a neat pamphlet of 32 pages, shows that premiums in 20 classes are offered, with 61 special premiums, and 159 special premiums by individuals, the whole amounting to about $3,000 in value. The exhibition promises to be a magnificent success, as in addition to displays from fanciers and breeders in all parts of this State, there will be a large number of entries by persons in other sections of the country. Entries for competition will close Saturday, January 9

ROBBINS WANTS TO BE RELEASED During the present week, Deputy Sheriff Ames of Knox county, and Abner Knowles counsel of Robbins, the "Annie B" murderer, were in Bangor for the purpose of securing his release from the Insane asylum at Augusta, where he has been confined for about a month. Application was made to Judge Peters for the removal of Robbins from Augusta to the custody of his parents on Deer Island which application was promptly refused, upon the ground that if Robbins was a sane man, he was a guilty man, and his confinement in the Hospital was none too severe a punishment and on the other hand, if he was not of sound mind as the jury found in the verdict the Asylum was the proper place for him. Chief Justice Appleton concurred in the decision of Judge Peters adding that something was due to the British Government in the disposition of the case. Dr Harlow Superintendent of the Asylum in answer to inquiries wrote to Judge Peters saying that, although he had testified that in his judgment, Robbins was a sane man at the time of the trial, yet he was of the opinion that if Robbins was insane at the time he committed the murder as the jury found, he would be liable to a recurrence of the malady, and therefore would be an unsafe man to be at liberty. The application was made in accordance with the State law providing that a person ... committed may be discharged by any Justice of the Supreme Court if such Justice considers it safe and proper. On the subject of this application the Lewiston Journal says

We are sure that there will be a general approval of the decision of Judge Peters. It is time that persons who commit crime should understand that the plea of insanity, even if accepted by the jury will not simply serve to give a prisoner his freedom. This plea is becoming too common a dodge to escape punishment for crime. If it be true that the criminal was ... the prisoner was insane, he should be sent to the hospital for ... safe keeping ... the punishment would have ... If the plea of insanity be an ... the prison ... should be confined in the hospital as long as ... would have been imprisoned had no ... plea ... made. ... this be the invariable practice in disposing of prisoners who make the plea ... we shall soon find that this plea will no longer be ...

FRIDAY, November 13. N H Hall vs. John E. Robinson. Complaint setting forth that defendant had collected $122 for plaintiff, and had refused to account and pay proceeds except $55 after demand. Defence put in an account as a set-off amounting to more than amount collected. The court awarded judgment for plaintiff for $9.00 and no costs.

Daniel Griffin vs. Dennis Griffin. The son sued his father for supplies of necessaries to the father's family. The father denies giving his son authority to do so, says he was driven from his home by his termagant wife, and that he gave her all his earnings. Verdict for defendant.

Laughton — Rawson

Gilbert Sou... vs. Charles A. Kealley. Trespass for covering up plaintiff's lot in Brewer with refuse stuff from defendant's lumber steam mill situate near it. There was something admitted as damage by defendant but he claimed that it was only nominal as the lot was nearly worthless as situated. Verdict for plaintiff for $50 00 damages.

Wilson & Woodard — Palmer

ON TRIAL

John Sheridan vs Daniel F ... Ireland and logs. Plaintiff seeks to hold the logs attached for his personal service in cutting and hauling the same. The owners of the logs Messrs. Shaw and Tyler, appear and defend the logs from plaintiff's lien. The statute gives a lien on logs and lumber for such services and it continues sixty days after it arrives at the place of destination for sale or manufacture. One question raised is whether the place of destination is the arrival of the logs in the Penobscot Boom, which the defendant claims or their arrival on the shores below the boom after being rafted out and where they are usually scaled off and delivered to the purchaser, which also plaintiff claims. The settlement of this question has a bearing upon the fact of the expiration of plaintiff's lien of sixty days.

FAIR YOLANTE.

BY WILLIAM BESANT.

Sweet Yolante, in her chamber fair,
Bends at her work o'er shuttle and woof,
Here golden threads, and a silk one there,
But her mother chides her in bitter reproof,
"Therefore, I blame thee, fair Yolante!

"Fair Yolante, thy mother am I,
And so may speak as seemeth me good."
"But mother, ah! mother, pray tell me why?"
"Tell thee, I will, as a mother should,
Wherefore I blame thee, my child Yolante."

"It is not for weaving the silk and the gold;
It is not for work, it is not for play,
It is not for sleeping when matins are told,
But for whispering over thy lover gay—
Therefore I chide thee, fair Yolante.

"Whispering, child, with the County Guy;
Whispering, laughing, when no one is near,
Bitterly now doth thy husband sigh;
Speak no more with him, daughter dear—
Therefore I blame thee, fair Yolante."

"And if my husband himself should pray,
And if he and his kin all sorrow and sigh,
Little care I, for I must say nay,
And never cease loving my County Guy."
"Therefore I blame thee, fair Yolante."
